CMS Approves Multi-State Expansion for Universal Health Care Group's "Any Any Any" Plan

St. Petersburg, Florida, August 5, 2009: Universal Health Care Group in St. Petersburg announces today that the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) has accepted its 2010 applications to market the "Any Any Any" Plan to beneficiaries in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Mississippi effective with the annual enrollment period starting November 15, 2009. The "Any Any Any" Plan is offered by Universal through the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Universal Healthcare Insurance Company Inc. With the addition of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Mississippi to its existing states of Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana, Texas, Nevada, Arizona, and Utah, the "Any Any Any" Plan will be offered in 11 states for 2010.

Universal Health Care Group Chairman and CEO Dr. Akshay Desai commented, "Our mission is to provide access to essential health care services so all Americans can lead healthy, fulfilling and meaningful lives. This expansion continues to move the Company forward towards our goal of offering plans in all 50 states. We are appreciative of CMS' acceptance of our expansion plans and look forward to serving beneficiaries in these exciting new markets."

About Universal Health Care

Universal Health Care Group is the parent company of Universal Health Care, Inc., a managed care company that has been providing Medicare Advantage Health Plans to Medicare eligible beneficiaries since 2003 – most notably the "Medicare Masterpiece Plan®" and "Medicare Masterpiece PPOSM," as well as Florida Medicaid benefits through its "Universal U-FirstSM" Plans. The Group is also parent to Universal Health Care Insurance Company, Inc., which offers the popular Medicare Advantage "ANY ANY ANY Plan®." Currently, the Group is serving over 92,000 individuals located in eight states (Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana, Texas, Nevada, Arizona, and Utah) and expanding into Pennsylvania, Maryland and Mississippi in 2010.
